As a Senior Associate Consultant, Rachel plays a critical role in both day-to-day servicing and long-term strategic planning of her clients' employee benefits programs. Key responsibilities include serving as a main point of contact, soliciting and negotiating RFPs and renewals for all lines of coverage, and financial reporting and analysis.

Rachel joined Graham Company immediately following her college graduation at Temple University where she earned a Bachelor of Business Administration – she majored in Risk Management and Insurance, with a primary focus on Employee Benefits. Rachel now has over 7 years of experience in the industry. She has worked on fully-insured, level-funded, and self-insured clients, including reference-based pricing clients. The employer group sizes range from approximately 100 employees to 6,000 employees.

Rachel holds an Accident, Health, Life and Fix Annuities License in the State of Pennsylvania, as well as additional licenses in the states of Connecticut, Georgia, New Jersey and New York.
