

DAVID E. JORDON

Data Engineer

ACTIONS MATTER.®

Contact Information

E: djordon@grahamco.com

David Jordon has been with the Graham Company since January of 2019. Jordon started at Graham in the Employee Benefits department where he was responsible for data analytics and technical implementations.

Prior to joining The Graham Company, Jordon worked in multiple technology roles at organizations including Toyota Motor Manufacturing, Square D/Schneider Electric, and Pfizer/Pharmacia.

In 2022 Jordon transitioned to the Information Technology department at Graham and is now has the role of Data Engineer. He is responsible for designing and implementing business intelligence and analytics systems, particularly related to finance and production domains.

Jordon earned a bachelor's degree in business and master's in theology. He holds multiple technical certifications, and is licensed in Life, Accident & Health insurance.