ACTIONS MATTER.®

Steve joined the Graham Company in January 2021 to assume the role of General Industry Safety Consultant. In this role, Steve provides safety consultation services to clients in the manufacturing, distribution, real estate, financial and professional services, general services, and transportation industries.

Prior to joining the Graham Company, Steve worked as a Global Safety Specialist for The Hartford Steam Boiler (HSB) where his responsibilities included safety program and training development, hazard identification and analysis, incident investigation, fleet safety management, industrial hygiene, contractor management requirements, and regulatory compliance. During his time at HSB, Steve worked extensively with internal business groups in North America, Asia, Europe, and South America to develop and sustain a diverse and dynamic safety culture.

Steve graduated from Penn State University in 2006 with a B.A. in Economics. After spending 5 years working in the personal finance and insurance industries, Steve attained a M.S. in Environmental Protection and Safety Management from Saint Joseph's University where his focus and passion turned towards safety.

Steve serves as an authorized Outreach Training instructor for the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) 10- and 30-hour programs for General Industry. He is also a member of the American Society of Safety Professionals (ASSP) and holds a Certified Safety Professional (CSP) certification from the Board of Certified Safety Professionals.
