

MATTHEW FRENCH

Safety Consultant

ACTIONS MATTER.®

Matt joined the Graham Company as a Safety Consultant in August 2021. Prior to joining the Graham Company, he worked for 16 years as a Risk Control Consultant for an insurance carrier. In that role, he assisted clients across multiple industries with site safety evaluations, safety training, and pre-planning. Matt's background in workers compensation, fleet safety, general liability, and property protection is utilized to assist the Graham Company's clients with their ongoing loss prevention efforts.

Matt graduated from Millersville University in 2003 with a B.S. in Occupational Safety and Environmental Health. He went on to earn an M.S. in Industrial Hygiene from West Virginia University in 2005. He has attained the following professional designations: Certified Safety Professional (CSP), Associate in Risk Management (ARM), and Construction Risk Insurance Specialist (CRIS). Matt is also a member of the American Society of Safety Professionals (ASSP).
