

DOUG EASLICK

Employee Benefits Consultant

Doug Easlick joined The Graham Company in 2016 as a Producer in the Employee Benefits Division. He is responsible for developing new business relationships and sales. His main focus is to help develop long term strategies for companies that are frustrated with rising medical and pharmacy costs.

Prior to joining The Graham Company, Easlick worked as a Carrier Rep, Enrollment Consultant and Team Leader throughout the insurance industry.

Easlick is an active member of the Tri-State SHRM, the Society for Human Resource Management.

Easlick graduated from Virginia Tech University with a Bachelor of Science degree in residential property management. He was also a member of the wrestling and football teams. After college he spent three years chasing his dream of playing in the National Football League. Easlick spent time with the Miami Dolphins, Cincinnati Bengals and Pittsburgh Steelers.

CONTACT INFORMATION

P: 215.701.5296

E: deaslick@grahamco.com