

MEAGAN FARROW, ESQUIRE

Claims Consultant

ACTIONS MATTER.®

Meagan Farrow joined The Graham Company in 2019 with a background in regulatory compliance and litigation accounting. In her role as a Claims Consultant, Farrow is involved with the design, implementation, and oversight of clients' claims management programs.

As a licensed attorney and former Certified Public Accountant, Farrow uses her legal and accounting background to effectively manage claims and advocate for Graham's clients. Farrow previously served as Associate Counsel at a private security services company where she assisted in managing the company's compliance program, conducted fraud investigations, and worked closely with regulators to advocate on the company's behalf. Prior to this position, Farrow worked in litigation accounting for a national accounting firm where she was involved in calculating economic damages in insurance defense matters. As a Claims Consultant, she uses her previous experience to identify the best strategies for clients to reduce the occurrence of claims and mitigate the severity of claims when they occur.

Farrow graduated with a History degree from the University of Colorado where she was in the Honors Program. She obtained her law degree from the University of Denver – Sturm College of Law where she concentrated in Corporate and Commercial Law and graduated Order of St. Ives. She is admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania and New Jersey and is a licensed Insurance Agent in Pennsylvania.
