

FRANCES GRAHAM

Board Member

Frances Graham is a Board Member at The Graham Company. She has been involved with the company for over 35 years and is well-versed in the operations in The Graham Company. Graham is a 1966 Graduate of Moore College of Art and Design, where she earned her BFA in Interior Design. She was elected the chairman of Moore's Board of Trustees in July 2011, after having served on the Board since 2001.

In addition, Graham has been influential in her philanthropic efforts on behalf of the college, chairing Moore's Visionary Women Awards for the past eight years and spearheaded the fund raising efforts to renovate Stahl Hall Dormitory and the 21st Century Fund. She also established the Fran Graham Scholarship in order to ensure that others have access to an education at Moore College.

Graham has worked for Strite & Co., Nolan & Swinburne, Kling Interior Design, and Graham Interior design. Her work has been largely commercially focused, working with several well-known companies, such as AT&T Company, Bell Telephone Laboratories, American Stores Company, University of Delaware, Temple University and St. Josephs' Preparatory School.

Graham belongs to the Philadelphia Art Alliance, Philadelphia Watercolor Society, The Main Line Art Center and Wayne Art Center.
