

KEVIN B. HERON

ARM, CPCU, Account Manager

ACTIONS MATTER.®

Kevin Heron graduated from Drexel University in 1998 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Construction Management. Prior to joining the Graham Company, he spent one year with The IT Group, Inc. performing cost tracking, procurement and government invoicing services on US Environmental Protection Agency Superfund Sites. Since joining the Graham Company in 1999, Kevin has worked on an Account Management team, servicing clients in a variety of industries including Manufacturing, Construction, Food & Beverage, Distribution, Technology, Environmental and Financial Institutions.

From May 2006 to September 2011, Kevin was intimately involved in administration services for the Philadelphia School District OCIP and Harvard University OCIP. Kevin's services included but were not limited to contractor enrollment, certificate of insurance tracking and insurance program review. His services will continue to expand as project activity increases. Kevin is a licensed insurance agent and obtained the Associate in Risk Management (ARM) designation in 2013.
