The Graham Company's Chairman and CEO Receives Award for Distinguished Citizenship from Bucknell University

PHILADELPHIA, PA – November 7, 2012 – The Graham Company, one of the Mid-Atlantic region's largest insurance and employee benefits brokers, today announces that William A. Graham IV, Chairman and CEO of The Graham Company, was awarded the Bucknell Award for Distinguished Citizenship from his alma mater, Bucknell University. Graham was honored at the University's Academic Year Celebration Dinner and Awards Presentation during Homecoming Weekend on Friday, October 26.

Graham, a 1962 graduate of Bucknell University, was selected as this year's recipient of the award for his service as a trustee and his commitment to philanthropic initiatives at Bucknell as well as his leadership in the Philadelphia area.

The Bucknell Award for Distinguished Citizenship is given annually to an alumnus or supporter who exemplifies the mission of the University's founders, which was to educate students to serve the common good and to promote justice in ways sensitive to the moral and ethical dimensions of life.

Graham is a former Bucknell wrestling team captain and the program's largest benefactor. A member of Bucknell's Board of Trustees, Graham's support helped reinstate the Bison wrestling program back to varsity status in 2005. Additionally, his generous gifts have significantly benefitted women's athletics programs at Bucknell. He received the National Wrestling Coaches Association Meritorious Service Award in 2005, and he was named the National Association of Athletic Development Directors University Division Donor of the Year in 2007. For his decades of support, Graham was elected to the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association (EIWA) Hall of Fame in March 2011.
