The Graham Company CEO Recognized with Temple University's Fox School of Business Musser Excellence in Leadership Award

PHILADELPHIA, PA – November 6, 2015 – The Graham Company, one of the Mid-Atlantic region's largest insurance and employee benefits brokers, announces that Chairman and CEO, William A. Graham, IV was selected as the recipient of the 19th Annual Musser Excellence in Leadership Award from Temple University's Fox School of Business.

The prestigious award honors outstanding achievement and service by a distinguished member of the business community. It is the highest honor Temple University's Fox School of Business affords, and it recognizes those who personify the idea of leadership and exceptional individual accomplishments that benefit the larger community.

Graham has been a member of the Philadelphia business community for more than 50 years. Upon graduating from Bucknell University in June 1962, he joined his father's insurance agency as a sales representative and eventually became the sole owner in 1972. Under his leadership, The Graham Company has grown from six employees with revenues of $300,000 to a team of 160 employees and revenues of almost $50,000,000.

"For a half a century, Bill has led The Graham Company in providing clients in high-risk industries with superior protection and peace of mind," said Ken Ewell, President and COO of The Graham Company. "It is an honor to see Bill be recognized with such a prestigious award from Temple's Fox School of Business."
