The Graham Company Chairman and CEO Honored for Excellence in Education

- Insurance Society of Philadelphia to Recognize William A. Graham's Commitment to Professional Training and Excellence at Annual Awards Banquet -

PHILADELPHIA, PA – June 20, 2012 – The Graham Company, one of the region's largest insurance and employee benefits brokerages, announces that Chairman and CEO William A. Graham will be honored today with the Mariellen Whelan Excellence in Education Award by the Insurance Society of Philadelphia. As a supporter of the Society, The Graham Company is proud to maintain a high standard for educational excellence and technical expertise with in-house investments in training and education.

Through an intensive technical education program, The Graham Company ensures employees operate at peak performance levels with a minimum of three years of training – eight times the industry average.

“Ongoing training is paramount for us,” said Ken Ewell, President of The Graham Company. “For over 50 years we’ve been committed to raising the standards for educational excellence within our company and the entire insurance industry, because we know it can be the difference between properly managing and insuring an exposure and sustaining a loss.”

The Insurance Society of Philadelphia is dedicated to fostering, developing and providing educational programs and professional development in Insurance, Risk Management, Financial Services and other related industries. It is a certified provider of continuing education for insurance agents and brokers throughout the tri-state and is sponsored by more than 200 member companies in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

William A. Graham will be honored today at the Society's Annual Awards Banquet at the Downtown Club from 11:45 a.m. to 2 p.m.
