The Graham Company Announces Three New Hires

---Three attorneys from the region's top firms join the Company's Account Service Team---

PHILADELPHIA, PA – August 16, 2012 – The Graham Company, one of the region's largest insurance and employee benefits brokerages, announces three attorneys from the region's top firms join the Company's Account Service Team.

“The Graham Company continues to deliver unmatched industry expertise to our clients with the addition of three new hires,” said Ken Ewell, President of The Graham Company. “All three bring high-caliber legal backgrounds to The Graham Company as insurance coverage attorneys and a strong understanding of our client’s unique and complex risks.”

We are pleased to introduce the newest members of our account service team:

Jennifer L. Corry, Esq., joins The Graham Company as an Account Manager from Hangley Aronchick Segal Pudlin & Schiller, where she was an Associate in the Litigation Department. She brings a combined 11 years of experience representing the insurance industry in legal matters.

Micah J. M. Knapp, Esq., joins The Graham Company as a Producer. He brings 10 years of experience as an insurance coverage attorney to this role and most recently worked at Cozen O'Connor where he was a Partner in the Global Insurance Group.

Timothy Stauss, Esq., joins The Graham Company as an Account Manager from Duane Morris LLP, where he worked as a Commercial, Securities and Antitrust Litigation Associate.
