

Daria Ward & Maureen Butcher awarded President's CPCU Scholarship

September 2, 2010

The Graham Company's own, Maureen Butcher and Daria Ward, have both been awarded one of the 100 President's Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) Scholarships from the American Institute For Chartered Property Casualty Underwriters.

The CPCU designation is respected as the premier property-casualty insurance credential. The Graham Company congratulates Maureen and Daria for this great accomplishment!

About The President's CPCU Scholarship

The President's CPCU Scholarship is designed to recognize high performing individuals within the property-casualty industry. The scholarship covers the costs of CPCU textbooks, course guides (which include online practice exams), SMART Study Aids (which include flash cards and review notes), and exam registration fees.
